PERMANENT FAIR PLANT

The second Grady County Free fair has turned out to be a decided success. The value of such an institution has been demonstrated beyond question. Up to the present time the free fair plan has been more or less of an experiment but that stage in its development is past—it is now a fixed idea.

The free fair is going to be a bigger enterprise with each passing year and it therefore becomes incumbent upon us to consider the matter of providing a permanent plant for it. The tents and other make-shift arrangements are wholly inadequate for it and will become more so every year. The most practical and economical course open is for the county to acquire sufficient grounds and erect the necessary buildings.

When it is all figured out it will probably be found that the cost of maintaining such a plant will be no more than the expense incident to annually providing tents and other temporary facilities for taking care of the exhibits. As a mere matter of economy it would pay the tax-paying people of the county to buy a permanent fair plant and this is by no means the only benefit that would be realized from it.

We are endeavoring to promote the progress of Grady county in the growing of better livestock, better agricultural products and in all material lines. The county fair cultivates the spirit of rivalry and also in other ways becomes a powerful factor in the furtherance of this object.

The more effective we can make the fair in the accomplishment of its mission the better it will be for the farmers, land owners and all other classes of citizens. Permanent buildings and grounds, owned by the county, will guarantee the continued success and growth of the fair and we should lose no time in getting them.

"AMERICAN HONOR"

In his speech of acceptance Vice President Marshall discussed "American honor" which Mr. Hughes and his party are endeavoring to put forward as an issue in the present campaign. On this subject Mr. Marshall spoke in part as follows:

"Now everybody knows that there are as many kinds of honor as there are kinds of men. A gambler believes that honor consists in paying his gambling debts. A crook believes it consists in shielding his pals and a thief in fairly dividing the booty. Individual honor changes with the ages. Alexander Hamilton thought that honor demanded that he give Aaron Burr a chance to kill him but we now do not think so. The honor of America is simply the composite opinion of the American people as to when and where we should go to war. We have an Americanism in this country. We have a sense of national honor. It does not belong to the men who are hold office nor to the men who want office. It is the composite opinion of the American people as to what conduct constitutes cause for war.

"The whole history of the republic from Washington down is filled with illustrations of the taking of American life, and the destruction of American property but the instances are rare in which American honor was so assailed that the people deemed it necessary to maintain that honor by force of arms. Neither the president nor the people have lost the American spirit. Whether native-born or foreign born, an overwhelming majority love the flag and are loyal to our institutions. Let any organized government upon the face of the earth through its governmental authorities, deliberately offer an insult to the flag, or trample upon the rights of the American people and the Spirit of '76 will be found alive everywhere in our land. But so long as there is no manifest intention or deliberate purpose on the part of a government to insult our government, not all the perturbed orators who long for place can stir the martial spirit in the breasts of our people. We will not fight to please individual views. We take up arms only for the composite American who has been moulded in the constitutional pattern of civil and religious liberty."

PAY-UP WEEK HERE OCTOBER 2nd TO 7th.

Mayor Coffman designates the first week of October as the time to square up debts. It is a national movement. Chickasha will pass prosperity around in an endless chain.

"The thing that strikes me," said Mayor Coffman yesterday, in regard to his proclamation just issued calling attention of people to National Pay-Up Week, October 2nd to 7th, "is how dependent we all are upon each other. No one class can gain at the expense of all the others. The factories cannot run without markets for their goods."

The farmer can make no money if there is none to buy his surplus products. As the farmer prospers, all prosper. As the other commercial interests of the country prosper, the farmer prospers. We must all look to each other for our living. If we turn into the channels of business the millions of dollars that we all owe each other so that we can again use the dollars to buy more things we need, every man who is supplying a need will prosper.

"That is the object of National Pay-Up Week, October 2nd to 7th. You can help and you can be helped if you will pay up during this week. Let's all work together. Let's pass prosperity around."

Don't make any mistake in the plan. The idea is not that you pay me so I can pay the other fellow, but I'll pay you and you pay the other fellow, if we all take it upon ourselves to start the ball rolling, we can have a real rousing pay-up week right here. If we wait for the other fellow to pay up, it might not be so much of a success as it should be. This movement has been taken up in Chickasha upon the recommendation of hundreds of towns which engaged in the first National Pay-Up Week in February of this year and the second National Pay-Up Week, which is announced for October 2nd to 7th is to be truly national in scope, as thousands of communities in every section of the United States from one coast to the other and from the north line to the Gulf of Mexico will take part in it. During this week, the energy of millions of people will be centered upon passing busy dollars around, cleaning up old debts, starting in anew and prosperity will certainly result from it. Get ready for National Pay-Up Week, October 2nd to 7th.

First Day of School.
In Chickasha no pealing bell
O'er school kids weaves a magic spell.
But, big and little, grave and gay,
They'll be there for the opening day.

St. Simps says he always notices that the twilight glow is seen at sunset.

Frost did his best to put on a premature performance but he made a fizzle of it.

But nobody wants any free advice unless it comes from a lawyer or doctor.

Monday will be a momentous day for the crop of six-year-olds who start their school careers.

Did you notice Dad Roland's 900-pound "pig" at the fair? He was almost as big as Dad himself.

However the blow-up of the better babies show probably didn't make as big a noise as the infants themselves would have made.

To close out his stock of swims, Billy Hopkins should have offered cool weather bargains at his natatorium during the fair.

Not knowing that winter had driven up, Oscar Simpson was seen shivering in his Palm Beach pants and B. V.

Before starting to buy out a dry goods store, it is always proper for a woman to secure an up-to-date report on the condition of the family treasury.

Dr. Cohen was immensely interested when Joe Thompson showed him a live specimen of a hog cholera "germ" at the fair—it was a baby turtle which Joe had picked up in a pen.

On at least one point the Chickasha sentiment is unanimous—the high school football boys must clean all corners. There is going to be trouble if they don't capture the state championship.

Preparedness.

The bride went into the kitchen of their new home and returned shortly carrying a rolling pin and a flat-iron, which she laid beside her twin bed.

"What in the world are you doing?" asked the astonished groom. "You aren't afraid I'll beat you, are you?"

"I am not afraid of anything," answered the bride. "I have not the least suspicion that you will ever be anything but sweet and kind to me. But I am a firm advocate of preparedness."—Paterson Press-Guardian.

THE WAY TO WORK

Let me but find it in my heart to say.

When vagrant wishes beckon me astray;

This is my work, my blessing, not my doom;

Of all who live, I am the one by whom

This work can best be done in the right way.

—Henry Van Dyke.

SCRIPTURE.

Luke 18:19-27.

And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

Thou knowest the commandments. Do not commit adultery. Do not kill. Do not steal. Do not bear false witness. Honour thy father and thy mother.

And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing; sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.

And when he heard this he was very sorrowful; for he was very rich.

And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich

Not Complaining.

"So you have to wear your boy Josh's old clothes?"

"Yep," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "We can't afford to waste 'em. And there's something to be thankful for when I think of what mother would look like if Josh had been a daughter instead of a son."
